

Plymouth Park Department Newsletter

August
2019

The summer is winding down which means the Plymouth Public Pool will close August 18th at 6pm. Please visit our Public Pool facebook page, or the City's website to check hours.

It's hard to believe, but we have already gone through nine weeks of Day Camp. What a great group we have had all summer! Thank you so much to our sponsors who make it possible!

We will be putting on our Coca-Cola Family Fun Day Sunday, August 4th from 6-9pm. There will be free entertainment, bounce houses, free hot dogs, pop, and popcorn. Come on out to River Park Square to see us!

We just finished up our Senior Classic Games which are put on in partnership with Miller's Assisted Living. Thanks to all who sponsored and those that participated!

We had a great time and look to grow the games next year!

The next park trip will be coming up on August 19th! We are heading to Blue Chip Casino from 12pm -7pm. Free buffet!! Call the park and get signed up today!

River Park Square will be busy for the month of August! Every Friday night there will be a FREE concert for the Mayor's Month of Music! Bring your lawn chairs & coolers and come enjoy the music! Music starts at 7pm.

Exercise classes with Jane at the Webster Center will start back up on September. Check back for class times!
