

Plymouth Park Department Newsletter

July 2018

The pool is open and swim lessons have started! There are still spots available in both sessions 3 & 4 with three time slots: 10:00am, 11:00am, & 6:00pm. Also, there is a free Aqua Exercise Class on Mondays & Wednesdays from 8:00-8:45pm at the Plymouth Public Pool.

Day Camp is having a blast exploring the park, swimming, visiting Price's Pond, Fitness Forum & making all kinds of crafts! If you are interested in sending your child just stop by the park office to pick up a Day Camp information packet. For registration forms visit the Park Department's webpage at: www.plymouthin.com.

River Park Square will be busy with a couple upcoming events this month as well as Farmer's Market on Saturday mornings. On Saturday, July 21st The Plymouth Park Department will host our annual Coca-Cola Family Day from 6:00-9:00pm. There will be free Hot Dogs, popcorn & Coke products. We will also have music throughout played by Quentin Flagg and bounce houses for the kids to enjoy!

The Plymouth Park Department and Miller's Assisted Living Community would like you to join us for the Senior Classic Games which will take place July 29th through August 3rd. This event is held to promote a healthy and active lifestyle for ages 50 and over. Brochures and registration forms can be picked up at the Park Office and Miller's Assisted Living. We will take registration forms at any time. For more information call 574-936-2876.
