

Plymouth Park Department Newsletter

April 2017

Now is the time that the park gets really busy. When that first bit of sunshine and warmer weather hits the park is flooded with anxious bodies that have been cooped up all winter long!

The Plymouth Park Department is gearing up for one of our most popular events of the year, Breakfast with the Easter Bunny & Easter in the Park are just around the corner!!

Breakfast with the Easter Bunny will be on Saturday, April 8th from 8:30 a.m.—10:30 a.m. Tickets are on sale at the Park Office. Adults are $4.00 and children will be $3.00. A special thank you goes out to the Plymouth Kiwanis Club who helps put this on every year. We will hold the annual Easter Egg Hunt immediately following the pancake breakfast on April 8th at 11:30 a.m. sharp in Centennial Park. There will be free Coca-Cola products and popcorn! Rain, snow or shine! Don't forget to bring your camera & baskets!

Looking for something fun to send your kids to this summer? Try Plymouth Park Department's Summer Day Camp. They will do crafts, experiments, games, hikes, sports, swimming, and even visits to Fitness Forum at Lifeplex and Price's Pond! Stop by the park office to pick up a registration form or visit the Park Department webpage at: www.plymouthin.com.

The Plymouth Park Department will be hosting the Mother-Son Magic Show Breakfast on Saturday, May 13th from 9:00a.m.—11:00a.m. at the Webster Center. Mothers and sons are invited to come enjoy donuts, juice and watch a sports themed magic show presented by John Dudley! The cost is $10.00 for each couple and $2.00 for each additional son. Tickets are now on sale and can be purchased at the Park Office in Centennial Park Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Space is limited so be sure to get your reservations in early. For more information call the Plymouth Park Department at 574-936-2876.
