

Plymouth Park Department January 2018 Newsletter

First and foremost, Happy New Year! Your Park Department hopes that the holidays treated you well and you're ready for a great 2018 at the Park!

We will going on our first park trip on January 25th. We are headed to downtown Plymouth to the Heartland Artists Gallery! Jayne Jacobson will be teaching an acrylic pouring class which will cost $20. All are welcome! Please sign up at the park office by January 19th and plan to bring payment to the Gallery the day of the event. Your $20 covers all materials and you'll have something to take home after!

February brings us Valentine's Day and the Daddy Daughter Dance. The dance will happen on February 10th from 6:30-8:30pm. Join us to boogie, eat some snacks, and have your picture taken! Tickets are $10 for 1 dad and 1 daughter. Each additional daughter will cost $2. Tickets will go on sale January 22nd! Space is limited so make sure to get your tickets early.
